Octavian’s Accounting – Control – Progressives System (MyACP) Certified by GLI for the Colombian Market

The NOVOMATIC Group subsidiary Octavian Argentina has now received the official GLI certification for its proprietary casino management system MyACP for the Colombian market. This innovative casino management tool is distributed in Colombia by the local NOVOMATIC group subsidiary AGI Gaming Colombia.

The casino management system MyACP is highly modular solution that can be flexibly adapted to the individual needs of the operator as well as to the official requirements of the respective regulatory authorities. The functionalities of the system include modules for Accounting, Floor Monitoring, TITO, Cashless, Player Loyalty and Player Tracking. With its modular and scalable design MyACP offers in real-time data as well as a wide range of features for operators of gaming machines and live games in all market segments. MyACP also meets all requirements and prerequisites of the Columbian gaming authority Coljuegos.

Its multiple benefits present the MyACP system not only as an efficient control system but also as a valuable integrated management tool that has been chosen by many operators worldwide in order to meet governmental requirements while also increasing their profit.

Manuel del Sol, CEO of AGI Gaming Colombia: “Achieving this certification of our sister company Octavian Argentina is undoubtedly an important step towards positioning NOVOMATIC in Colombia as a leading provider, not only just as a supplier of machines for the market but also as the leading solutions supplier to the industry.”

The MyACP system was presented at the ‘Feria Andina de Juegos de Azar’ (FADJA) that took place from April 8-9 in the Colombian capital city Bogotá and was seen to inspire the imagination of all visitors to the NOVOMATIC booth.

Austrian Gaming Industries GmbH (AGI) a 100-percent subsidiary of NOVOMATIC AG (www.novomatic.com) is a global gaming company specializing in the design, development, manufacturing, distribution and sales of electronic gaming machines and advanced technology products.
